

Information for Authors

Types of Contributions

We welcome all contributions that are of potential interest to nurse practitioners, including but not limited to the following categories:

Original Research - Please follow the standard format of scientific manuscripts with the inclusion of an abstract, introduction, methods, results, discussion and conclusion. Tables and figures must be submitted in an editable word file.

Key Concepts - Brief contributions on topics of interest to nurse practitioners, such as new therapeutic approaches or frequently encountered clinical conditions.

Practice Perspectives - An article that illustrates diagnosis, treatment or management concepts, including innovative NP-led initiatives.

Peer Review

Submissions are subject to a blind peer review. After initial review by the editor, submitted articles will generally be sent to two reviewers who will provide comments on the scientific rigor of the content and its suitability for our audience. The final decision on the acceptance of the submission rests with the editor of NP Current.

Submission Length

All articles should be a maximum of 3000 words unless there is a prior discussion with the editor.

Funding and Conflict of Interest Reporting

All authors must complete a funding disclosure and conflict of interest form.

Ethics Review

Any studies involving human or animal subjects must have obtained appropriate approvals and consent.

Submission Declaration and Verification

Submitted articles must not have been previously published (abstracts and theses excluded) or under consideration for publication in the same format elsewhere.

Authorship

All authors must have made substantial contributions to the development of the article.

Copyright

Authors agree to transfer copyright to the NP Current publisher but retain the right to:

- Share their article for personal or scholarly use
- Retain intellectual property rights
- Attribution and credit for the published work
